Parents' Code of Conduct & Parent Agreement

Academic year	2026 – 2027
Date adopted
Review date	August 2026 (annual)
Policy owner	Mufti Didar Hasan, Co-Founder & Head of Education
Applies to	All parents and guardians of enrolled pupils, from the age of 5
Related policies	Fees Policy, Behaviour Policy, Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy

Darul-ilm Kent ("the Madrasa") exists to serve your child's Islamic education, and we can only do that well in partnership with you. This agreement sets out what you can expect from us, and what we ask of you in return, so that expectations are clear and fair for every family from the moment your child joins.

1. Our Commitment to You

In return for the commitments you make below, the Madrasa commits to:

- Provide a safe, structured, and nurturing environment for your child's Islamic education, in line with our Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy and Behaviour Policy.
- Keep you informed of your child's progress, behaviour, and attendance, and raise any concerns with you promptly and directly.
- Treat you and your child with courtesy and respect at all times, and listen to concerns you raise in the same spirit.
- Communicate clearly about fees, term dates, and any changes to how the Madrasa operates.
- Give you a clear route to raise a concern or complaint, and respond to it fairly.

2. Supporting Your Child's Learning at Home

Your child's progress depends on consistent practice at home, not only on time spent in class. As a parent or guardian, you are responsible for making sure your child has a set daily routine for Islamic learning at home, and for making sure that routine is actually followed. This means ensuring your child:

- Spends 20 to 30 minutes on Islamic learning at home every day, as part of a regular, set routine.

- Practises their Qa'idah or Qur'an reading every day during this time.
- Learns any surah or du'a homework set by their teacher during this same time.
- Signs and dates their homework/communication diary every day, confirming that this has been done.

In addition, we ask that you:

- Attend parents' evenings, progress reviews, or review meetings you are invited to, particularly where a teacher has raised a concern.
- Speak positively about the Madrasa and their Islamic studies at home, so your child feels supported rather than caught between two expectations.
- Let your child's teacher know if something at home (a bereavement, illness, a change in circumstances) may affect your child's learning or behaviour, so we can support them properly.

3. Communication & Respect

We ask all parents to communicate with staff, volunteers, and other families in a manner consistent with Islamic manners (adab):

- Direct any concern, complaint, or disagreement to the Head Administrator or Head Teacher through the proper channel, rather than raising it in front of children or in public.
- Communicate with staff and volunteers respectfully at all times. Aggressive, abusive, or threatening language or behaviour towards any member of staff, volunteer, or other parent will not be tolerated and may result in your child's place being reviewed.
- We communicate with parents primarily through WhatsApp. On enrolment, you are added to two parent WhatsApp groups — the Parents' Group, a broadcast-only group used for official Madrasa announcements, and the Parents & Teachers Discussion Group, for questions and discussion — and we ask that you remain in both.
- Keep the Discussion Group, and any other parent WhatsApp groups, respectful and constructive. These groups are not the channel for complaints, disputes, or negative comments about staff, volunteers, or other families — please raise those directly with the Head Administrator or Head Teacher instead.
- Do not post negative, derogatory, or disparaging comments about the Madrasa, its staff, volunteers, or other families on social media. Any concern is best resolved directly with us, and we are always willing to listen.
- Keep the Madrasa informed of any change to your contact details, emergency contacts, or medical information for your child.

4. Attendance & Collection

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential to your child's progress and to the smooth running of classes. Your child is expected to attend every session. Days should only be missed for genuine emergencies, and you must notify the admin beforehand wherever possible. Please refer to the Fees Policy for full detail on attendance and punctuality; in summary, we ask that you:

- Ensure your child attends every session, only missing a day for a genuine emergency, and notify the admin beforehand wherever possible.
- Bring your child on time and collect them promptly at the end of each session.
- Ensure that whoever collects your child is known to the Madrasa. Staff will check with you before releasing a child to anyone unfamiliar.

- Maintain the minimum 80% attendance requirement set out in the Fees Policy. If your child's attendance falls below this, their application may be withdrawn, following the review process set out in that policy.

5. Behaviour, Uniform & Equipment

We ask parents to support the standards set out in the Behaviour Policy by ensuring your child attends in the correct uniform, clean and in good repair:

- Boys: a plain white thobe.
- Girls: a black or navy blue abaya, with a headscarf (hijab) covering the entire head and hair.

In addition, we ask that you:

- Ensure your child does not bring items not permitted on Madrasa premises, including unauthorised electronic devices.
- Support any reasonable sanction or behaviour plan put in place by staff, and discuss concerns about it directly with the Head Teacher rather than with your child's teacher in front of the class.
- Make sure your child takes reasonable care of Madrasa books, equipment, and premises.

6. Fees

Fees are set out in full in the Fees Policy, which forms part of this agreement. By enrolling your child, you agree to pay fees on time by one of the methods set out there, and you understand that continued non-payment may result in your child's place being suspended or withdrawn as described in that policy.

7. Photography & Social Media

From time to time, we take photos and videos during classes, events, and celebrations at Darul-ilm Kent. Photos taken for our own internal records, such as registers and safeguarding, are a normal part of how we run the Madrasa and don't need a separate decision from you.

In everything we photograph or share, Islamic codes of conduct and modesty are applied at all times, with particular care taken for our girls. This means being mindful of dress, posture, and context in any photo taken, and exercising discretion in what is shown and how it is shared, so that every family can trust their daughter's modesty is respected regardless of which option below is chosen.

Allowing us to share photos of group activities and your child's learning and achievements will be a means of da'wah towards the wider community. It helps show other parents the benefit of the Madrasa and may encourage them to send their own children to us.

Supporting this is, insha'Allah, a means of reward for you and your child, and a means of greater good for the community.

Please tell us your preference below and you can change your preference at any time by letting the Head Administrator know.

1. Full permission — my child may appear in photos and videos shared within the Madrasa community and publicly on our website or social media, individually or in a group.

2. Limited permission — my child may appear only in group or activity photos where they are not individually identifiable (for example, from behind, mid-activity, or as part of a wider group), whether shared within the Madrasa community or publicly.

3. No permission — my child should not appear in any photo or video shared outside the Madrasa's own internal records.

Whichever option is chosen, our commitment to Islamic modesty in how we photograph and share images applies equally to every child.

8. Health, Safety & Safeguarding

You agree to keep the Madrasa informed of any medical condition, allergy, or additional need your child has, so that staff can respond appropriately. You understand that the Madrasa follows its Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy at all times, including where a concern about a child's welfare must be reported to external agencies regardless of any wish for confidentiality.

9. Agreement

Agreement to this Parents' Code of Conduct & Parent Agreement is confirmed electronically as part of enrolment. When you complete the Darul-ilm Kent enrolment form, you confirm that you have read this document and the Parent Handbook, that you agree to the commitments they set out, and you record your choice of photography and social media permission (Section 7), alongside the Madrasa's Fees Policy, Behaviour Policy, and Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy.

If you do not have access to the online enrolment form, please contact the admin office and a paper copy can be arranged.

Jazākumullāhu khayran for your continued support and partnership,

Darul-ilm Kent

Head Administrator
